

Conference on Women's Health

8 March 2022

French Institute of Bulgaria, 3 sq. Slaveikov, Sofia

AGENDA

9.30 – 10.00 | Registration & coffee

10.00 – 10.15 | Welcome speeches

H.E. Ms. Florence Robine, French Ambassador in Bulgaria

Prof. Asena Serbezova, Minister of Health (TBC)

Ms. Marina Davidashvili, Lead International Advocacy and Partnerships, European Parliamentary Forum for Sexual and Reproductive Rights (EPF)

Ms. Livia Otal, General Coordinator of Médecins du Monde Bulgaria

10.15 – 11.30 | PART I - Access to sexual and reproductive health services

10.15 – 10.35 | Comparative analysis of policies across Europe - Marina Davidashvili, EPF

10.35 – 10.45 | Discussion

10.45 – 11.20 | Focus on Bulgaria - Testimonies from the field and ways forward - Médecins du Monde, Trust for Social achievement, Bulgarian Association of Family Planning and Sexual Health, Bulgarian Alliance of Midwives (panel)

11.20 – 11.35 | Discussion

11.35 – 12.30 | PART II - Policies for women's health

11.35 – 11.45 | European practices of the parliamentary delegations on women's issues - Marina Davidashvili, EPF

11.45 - 11.55 | The Romanian experience - Catalin Tenita, Member of the Romanian parliament (online)

11.55 - 12.05 | European policies on women's rights - Peter Vitanov, Member of the European parliament (online)

12.05 – 12.30 | Discussion – The importance of dialogue between the civil sector and policy-makers.