

—Non-binding courtesy translation—

Please note that applicants must fill out and sign the FRENCH VERSION of this document

CONVENTION

PUBLICATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM/FUNDING FOR ACQUISITION OF RIGHTS EXPENSES OR LICENCE FEE

Between the Institut français, 25 rue de Tolbiac 75013 Paris, represented by the President of his board of directors,

And the publisher [local publisher]:

Represented by:

It has been agreed as follows:

Article 1 - Purpose of Agreement

After consideration of the projects submitted to its commission as part of its Publication Assistance Programs, the Institut français agrees to grant financial support to the local publisher for the publication and translation of the following work:

Book title	Author	French Publisher	Planned release date	Initial circulation	Duration of assignment	Geographical scope of the assignment	French to translation	French to French

Article 2 - Financial Provisions

This assistance will cover:

Book title	This assistance will cover			Total amount of the acquisition of rights (in euros)	Parte reserved for IF
	The advance due for the acquisition of rights	The lum sum corresponding to the assigned rights	The iconography right		Full support	Parial support

This grant will be paid by the Institut français to the French publisher upon presentation by the local publisher of the copy of the assignment rights contract signed and dated by both parties, the balanced budget duly signed, and the French publisher's invoice corresponding to the amount granted. Documents must be sent to the Institut français within two months following the commission. In the event that the documents are not sent within this timeframe, the Institut français reserves the right to cancel the assistance granted.

Article 3 - Obligations of the contracting party

The local publisher agrees to include the following statement in the first pages of the book: "Cet ouvrage a bénéficié du soutien du Programme d'aide à la publication de l'Institut français" in French and to provide the Institut français an HD scan of the book cover and page mentioning the support of the Institut français, to be sent by email.

Article 4 - Copyright / Intellectual property

The local publisher certifies being in good standing vis-à-vis the copyright legislation, and that it has attended to all issues regarding the settlement of such rights inherent to this operation. The local publisher and the Institut français agree to adhere to the terms of the March 11, 1957 law on literary and artistic property. The publisher will inform the French Publisher of the grant request made to the Institut français.

Article 5 - Termination - Cancellation - Adjournment

Should the project be definitely postponed or remain uncompleted without any fault on the part of the local publisher and to the exception of cases of force majeure, the publisher will issue a statement for the paid expenses covered by the terms of the contract with the Institut français. An account statement will be provided, and any amounts paid in excess to the local publisher will be returned to the Institut français. In the case of an adjournment of the translation and publication of the book for reasons beyond the control of the local publisher, both parties agree to continue their collaboration without any compensation from either party.

Article 6 - Force Majeure

The responsible parties shall not be liable if failure to fulfill the contract requirements results from events or incidents beyond one's reasonable control; events or incidents that make it impossible to achieve partial or total completion of the project. The following will be considered as such events or incidents: the implementation of a law, decree or regulation (including European directives and regulations); - war, civil war or terrorism, fire, storm or flood, epidemics, earthquake, nuclear or chemical accident including radiation - strike preventing the normal functioning of the translation and publication of the book - political events in France and/or the country in which the project is implemented. If a force majeure event prevents the parties from performing all or part of their obligations, the parties will not be required to fulfill further obligations, without prejudice to actions already taken toward completion of the project.

Article 7 - Contract Fulfillment and Litigation

Should one of the articles of this agreement not be respected by the local publisher, the Institut français reserves the right to reconsider its participation in the project by asking to recover the aid already granted. Any dispute arising from this contract shall be settled through direct negotiations and any litigation regarding the validity, interpretation or execution of this contract which cannot be settled amicably shall be brought before the competent courts of Paris.

Paris, date:

For the Institut français

For the local publisher